An Equal Opportunity Organization

Dear SAHRMA Members,

The San Antonio Human Resource Management Association understands your organization's success depends upon hiring the right talent. Whether it is to increase revenue, deliver the best service to your clients, or create better products than your competitors, the right employees will help you grow your business. In today's changing world, SAHRMA is committed to supporting you in your recruiting efforts by providing enhanced recruiting solutions.

We are excited to announce our new Career Community, powered by Jobing.com, the leading locally focused employment media. You will be able to post your jobs directly to our new job board which is supported by Jobing.com team members who will service your account.

What does this alliance mean for SAHRMA and for you as an employer?

Now more than ever, it is critical to your business to find the right people, and we want to help you in that search for talent. In celebration of our alliance and Jobing.com's launch in San Antonio, Jobing.com is offering the following exclusive benefits to SAHRMA members:

- Limited "Jobing.com Loves HR in San Antonio" special: The first 200 members who respond to this opportunity will receive FREE unlimited non HR job postings on Jobing.com for one year, a value of $2,100. Please contact Brian Shumaker at 210.299.5299 or brian.shumaker@jobing.com to take advantage of this opportunity.
- Supporting the association: When you post your human resources positions on www.sahrma.org, you will be supporting SAHRMA in maintaining a revenue stream.
- Previously, when a job was posted on the SAHRMA job bank, the job was only posted to SAHRMA's website. Now, when you post your job to www.sahrma.org, it will automatically cross post to Jobing.com and their network of partners – expanding the reach of your job postings and recruiting efforts at no additional cost.

We hope you take advantage of this great opportunity to recruit the right local talent and position your organization for the long term.

The San Antonio Human Resource Management Association is dedicated to the success of your organization and we look forward to any feedback you may have regarding this newly updated feature on www.sahrma.org. If you have questions about the recruitment solutions Jobing.com can assist your organization with, please contact Brian Shumaker at 210.299.5299 or brian.shumaker@jobing.com. If you have questions about the alliance with Jobing.com or suggestions on future development, please feel free to contact Irene Harrington or Dana Martin at info@sahrma.org or call 210-797-5850.
